Annenberg Foundation Expands Mentor Program for Small Charities

The Annenberg Foundation will begin a new program to provide mentors for the leaders of scores of small Southern California nonprofit and social-services organizations, reports the Los Angeles Times.

The Alchemy program is an outgrowth of the Los Angeles foundation's Leadership Seminars, which advise nonprofit groups on reorganizing and raising money. Organizations that serve underprivileged and minority neighborhoods and have annual budgets of less than $2-million are eligible to participate.
